5. I Can. Can You ?

Let us Learn

Vimala was riding her bicycle in the garden. At that time, the wind blew strongly. It was about to rain.

After a while, it began to rain heavily with strong winds.

After the rain had stopped, Vimala went back to the garden, got wet from the water droplets that fell from the leaves and played happily.

THB Narrate the story given above and introduce the concepts like 'heavy-light'; 'thick – thin'.
